

Rodimiro Anaya emerges victorious in the Desert Rally Coahuila 1000

August 31, 2020.

- The 2020 edition took place from the 26th to the 29th of August.
- The route covers 1,000 kilometers of desert.
- As part of the evaluations, the drivers were practiced Covid-19 tests to prevent contagion in the Rally.

The 2020 edition of the Desert Rally Coahuila 1000 took place from the 26th to the 29th of August. Rodimiro Anaya reached first place in the star category, Class 1, in this edition of the rally in addition to obtaining the Overall award for the fastest vehicle in the competition; carrying his proud sponsor Electrolit.

The review of the documents, pilots medical assessment and technical evaluation during August 26 and 27 was the initial stage. In order to maintain adherence to new health standards, the pilots were also practiced a COVID-19 test.

Later on, on the 28th of August at 6:30 a.m., the first stage going from Saltillo to Parras began, and on the 29th the second stage from Parras to Torreon took place at the same time; covering an approximate distance of 1,000 kilometers.

Rodimiro Amaya, rally champion and Electrolit-sponsored driver, achieved an impeccable race. His awarding took place at the foot of the Cristo de Las Noas, in downtown Torreon on the 29th at night. The mayor of Torreon, Jorge Zermeño, congratulated all the participants and thanked them for being present both in the state and in the municipality.

Carlos Gabriel was placed second in the Class 1 category and Rafael Aguirre was placed third. The endeavors made regarding the race organization, as well as the experience of being in the desert of Coahuila satisfied both of them.